

Envisioning a world where neurodivergent individuals thrive

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Plant Sale Benefiting Brew & Bloom

Get your garden growing while supporting local job skills training! Farm to Table is partnering with Brew & Bloom Coffee for a plant sale benefiting Achieve Incorporated's nonprofit job skills program at Jane's Place – 3rd Street & Highway 291.

The sale is THIS Saturday, June 27, from 8 a.m. to noon at Brew & Bloom Coffee. Plants are $5 each and include tomatoes, dahlias, geraniums, blanket flowers, and fairy eggplant.

Proceeds support Brew & Bloom's mentorship-based job skills program for neurodivergent community members in rural Colorado.

Learn more at AchieveLifeSkills.org.

For more information about the sale, please contact Jill Lowry at jill@AchieveLifeSkills.org or 303-815-4436.

Information about Brew & Bloom Coffee / Achieve, Inc.

Brew & Bloom Coffee is a nonprofit job skills program of Achieve Inc. is a nonprofit organization providing innovative opportunities for individuals with neurodivergencies including mental health challenges in rural Colorado, to cultivate meaningful job and life skills.

Learn more at AchieveLifeSkills.org